

MIKE CLANCY

Assistant General Secretary of PROSPECT since 1995
Full time trade union official since 1990

Responsibility for members employed in the Energy sector
Policy lead for Health and Safety and Legal Services.
Responsibility for Prospect North, Midlands, & Scotland regions, including the Isle of Man and Channel Islands

UK Employment Tribunal member since 2000
UK Employment Appeal Tribunal since 2002
LLB (Warwick)
MA in Industrial Relations
MBA
Member - CIPD
Member Executive Committee - Institute of Employment Rights

MIKE GRAHAM

On leaving school at 16 Mike trained as a Marine Engineer with Shell Tankers (UK) Ltd deep-sea oil tankers before leaving to become a Maintenance Fitter at Leyland Vehicles Bus and Trucks in Lancashire.

Following redundancy he studied as a mature student qualifying with a BSc Society and Technology, on graduation in 1984 he was appointed as a Research and Administrative Officer in the TUC's North West Regional Office and was then promoted to Regional Secretary for the TUC in their South West Region.

In 1993 he became the Full Time Trade Union Official for the British Association of Colliery Managers (BACM), Doncaster, before taking up his current position as the Full Time Trade Union Official for EMA (now Prospect).

Mike has worked in Prospect's (EMA) Chertsey, Tewkesbury, Sale offices before moving to the Prospect Liverpool Office, he was promoted to National Secretary in February 2005 which includes managing the Prospect North Region and leading on the nuclear industry.

Mike has various interests including Rugby League (St Helens), Football (Blackburn Rovers!!), overseas travel, antiques, high altitude trekking and spending many wonderful hours waiting in motorway traffic jams!